DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1-2, 7, 9-22, 23-24, 29, 31-43 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Letovsky et al (US 2002/0147047 A1).

Letovsky et al discloses a gaming network system comprising a gaming client communicably coupled to the gaming network and a cashless gaming service commendably coupled to the gaming network and a method for providing a cashless gaming service in the gaming network comprising publishing an availability of the cashless gaming service on the gaming network [0066]; receiving a discovery request for the cashless gaming service; registering by a gaming client with the cashless gaming service; and processing one or more service requests between the gaming client and the cashless gaming service [0064-0066], said service requests inherently conforming to an internetworking protocol (Fig. 1). The cashless gaming service comprises a web service [0070]. The gaming client comprises a gaming machine and a service provider (Fig. 1). It is inherent that any service provider consist the features of having a request to establish a new account, modify details for an account and close an account. The service request also comprises a request to provide details for an account to obtain an account balance and transactions associated with an account; deposit funds into an account; electronically transferring funds from an external account into the account; obtaining authorization prior to electronically transferring funds; withdraw funds from an account; transferring the withdrawn funds as a playable credit on a gaming machine; deposit or withdraw Credits into or from an account [0072-0078]; and authenticating the gaming client to determine if the gaming client is authorized to receive cashless gaming services [0065-0066].

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claims 3-5, 8, 25-27, 30 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Letovsky et al (US 2002/0147047 A1).

Letovsky et al discloses the claimed invention except for the use of WSDL, UDDI registry, OFX and LDAP protocols. WSDL, UDDI registry, OFX and LDAP are all well known protocols for use in the internet and web services. It would have been an obvious matter of design choice to use these protocols, since applicant has not disclosed that using them solves any stated problem or is for any particular purpose.

Examiner's Note: Examiner has cited particular paragraphs, figures, columns and line numbers in the references as applied to the claims above for the convenience of the applicant. Although the specified citations are representative of the teachings in the art and are applied to the specific limitations within the individual claim, other passages and figures may apply as well. It is respectfully requested from the applicant, in preparing the responses, to fully consider the references in entirety as potentially teaching all or part of the claimed invention, as well as the context of the passage as taught by the prior art or disclosed by the examiner.

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Please see attached USPTO form PTO-892.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1 & 23 are provisionally rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1 & 13 of copending Application No. 10/788661 & 10/788902. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because all applications are claiming a method and system comprising of receiving a request, registering a client with the gaming service, and processing service request from the client.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.
